Good Cause Greetings Charity Partners

Breast Cancer Prevention Partners (formerly The Breast Cancer Fund) works to prevent breast cancer by eliminating our exposure to toxic chemicals and radiation linked to the disease.

Our Military Kids provides grants to the children of National Guard and Military Reserve personnel for participation in sports, fine arts, camps, and tutoring programs that nurture and sustain children while a parent is away in service to our country or recovering from injury.

CWLA is a powerful coalition of hundreds of public and private agencies serving millions of vulnerable children and families in all 50 states since 1920.

Prevent Child Abuse America works to promote the healthy development of children and prevent child abuse before it can occur. The goal is to help children grow up healthy, happy and able to contribute to their communities.

EcoHealth Alliance leads scientific research into the critical connections between human, animal, and environmental health. The organization develops solutions that prevent pandemics and promote conservation.

ProLiteracy works with organizations and adult learners in the United States and around the world to end the adult literacy crisis.

Environmental Defense Fund is dedicated to protecting the environmental rights of all people, including future generations. Among these rights are clean air, clean water, healthy, nourishing food and a flourishing ecosystem.

Starlight Children's Foundation delivers happiness to seriously ill children and their families through entertainment, education and family activities. Since 1982, Starlight programs have brought smiles to more than 16 million hospitalized kids.

Feeding America is the nation's leading domestic hunger-relief charity providing food to more than 37 million Americans each year, including 14 million children and 3 million seniors.

We Charity is a worldwide development charity and youth empowerment movement dedicated to providing education, access to clean water, healthcare, nutritious food and entrepreneurial opportunities in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Established in 1972, the Global Health Council is the collaborative voice of the global health community on global health issues; it convenes and actively engages key decision makers to influence health policy worldwide.

YouthAIDS, a global initiative by Population Services International, is a drive to protect and educate the world's youth against HIV/AIDS. YouthAIDS aims to save millions of lives through creative communications and preventive health products.

HealthRight International is a global health and human rights organization working to build lasting access to health for excluded communities while strengthening human rights.

Through spay/neuter and adoption programs, community-based animal shelters nationwide work to end pet cruelty, overpopulation and homelessness because every pet deserves a loving home.

The National Alliance to End Homelessness is a nonpartisan organization working collaboratively with the public, private and non-profit sectors to prevent and end homelessness in the U.S.

The National Foundation for Cancer Research was founded in 1973 to support cancer research and public education relating to the prevention, early diagnosis, better treatments and ultimately, a cure for cancer.
